necessary. However, the matter is refered to the Muzrai Superintendent.

Subject No. 263. Establishment of an Annachattram at Hole-Narsipur.

Summary of discussion.—As already requested an Anna-chattram may be established at Hole-Narsipur, for the convenience of travellers and pilgrims passing through the place.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Muzrai Superintendent for disposal.

Subject No. 264. Dharmadarsees for the Sri Chaturbhuja Pattabhi Ramaswami temple and Sri Lakshminarasimhaswami temple, at Hole-Narsipur.

Summary of discussion.—Dharmadarsees may be appointed for the temples of Sri Chaturbhuja Pattabhi Ramaswami and Sri Lakshminarasimhaswami at Hole-Narsipur.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Muzrai Superintendent for disposal.

Subject No. 265. Repairs to the Agasteswara temple at Ramnathpur.

Summary of discussion.—Ramnathpur is a place of great sanctity. The Agasteswara temple and its compound walls are out of order and early orders for the necessary repairs are solicited.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Muzrai Superintendent.

Subject No. 266. Town Police for Hole-Narsipur.

Summary of discussion.—Holé-Narsipur is a large town with a population of 5,300. The strength of the existing Police force is too small to meet its requirements, and burglary, theft, &c., are on the increase. It is prayed therefore that, as in the town of Hassan, a separate Police force may be sanctioned for Holé-Narsipur.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Inspector General of Police.

Subject No. 267. Introduction of the Gambling Act to Hole-Narsipur.

Summary of discussion.—Gambling is on the increase at Holé-Narsipur. The Gambling Act may therefore be introduced into it.

Reply of Government.—Vide reply to General Subject No. 65.

Subject No. 268. A musafirkhana at Konanur.

Summary of discussion.—Konanur is a large village on the Frazerpet-Ramnathpur road and is a halting station. The construction of a musafirkhana there is highly desirable. Much inconvenience is at present experienced by travellers halting at the station.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the President, District Fund Board.

Subject No. 269. Extension of the school building at Konanur.

Summary of discussion.—The Kannada School at Konanur has about 130 boys on its roll and 10 or 12 boys come out successful in the Lower Secondary Examination every year. The present school building which is too small, may be extended and an Anglo-Vernacular School established at the station.

Reply of Government—Referred to the Inspector General of Education.
